

Budweiser

Wants
Dayton to LOSE

After Budweiser was purchased by InBev — the giant foreign corporate brewer — it slashed over 2,065 jobs in the U.S. devastating hundreds of American workers.

It's no surprise that Budweiser's foreign owner has a history of hurting working families in America. After all, Heidelberg Distributing, the corporation that delivers Budweiser to Fifth Third Field, sells more than $206 million in beer every year in Ohio but is attacking its Dayton employees and their families, turning its back on its retirees, trying to force employees to work up to seven days a week, and violating American laws protecting workers.

Tell Budweiser: Hurting
Dayton Families is Foul
