The IBT Training and Development Department is conducting a four-day Teamsters Leadership Academy on Building Membership Participation for local union principal officers and their appointed LEARN coordinators. This program is open to all local unions and will be held September 21-24, 2009 at the Teamsters International Headquarters. The program will examine methods Teamster locals can use to build solidarity and foster participation among their memberships. It will be an opportunity to share ideas and strategies to build on the strength of Teamster members.

Please contact Marie Nolan at (202) 624-8965 before making hotel or travel arrangements to ensure that space is available in this program.
