

Emergency Care Workers Deserve Fair Treatment!

As citizens of western New York, we demand that our Emergency Medical Technicians and Paramedics working in the Greater Buffalo area be paid a fair wage. These medical professionals protect our families and communities 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

These emergency responders deserve respect at the bargaining table, but their employer, Rural/Metro Corporation, pays them less than responders in other New York cities such as Albany, Utica and Rochester.

We call on elected officials to tell Rural/Metro that our emergency personnel must have fair pay and decent work standards so that the citizens of western New York can continue to enjoy proper emergency care.

Sincerely,
